PREPARING FOR THE OPENING.

A consignment of school desks for Roger Williams University is expected within the next ten days. They have placed a large order for desks with one of the local firms.

The boiler, which is to be used in heating the building by steam, is already on the grounds. The mechanics will begin work not later than Friday or Saturday, December 13 or 14. They expect to complete the work within the next two weeks.

Old Santa Claus mask and hoods at prices from 40c up. Better go down to the National Baptist Publishing House and get them.

ROGER WILLIAMS UNIVERSITY.

Under the Auspices of the Baptist State Convention of Tennessee.

NASHVILLE, TENNESSEE.

Winter Session Opens January 1, 1908, at 10:30 A. M.

Location.

Located at Nashville, the Athens of the South; unusual educational advantages are offered; besides, ROGER WILLIAMS occupies a site at once ideal for an institution of learning. Situated on the east bank of the Cumberland, it is unsurpassed for elevation, health, beauty of scenery for miles around, and is within a few minutes' walk along the White's Creek turnpike from North First Street car line.

Equipment.

There are three buildings on the campus of 12 acres: the main one is two stories high, with basement, steam-heated and electric-lighted, and will be used for chapel, class-rooms, and dormitory for young ladies, for all of which it is admirably adapted; the second will be used for boys' dormitory and dining-hall; the third will be the administration building. A capable and efficient corps of instructors and officers has been selected, under whose charge the best interests of every student will be carefully safeguarded.

Aim.

As in the past, ROGER WILLIAMS stands for Christian education, secured largely through the careful and disciplinary training of mind, soul and body. The Literary Department will consist of English, Academic, and College and Theological Courses. The Bible will be a daily text-book in recitation. An hour of useful employment for the institution, each day, will be expected of every student. Further, ROGER WILLIAMS stands for Christian education, firm in the belief that it is the most potent factor in the permanent uplift of any people; it commends the heroic struggle the race is making to make its youth worthy to win in the battle of life, and thus seeks in good faith the opportunity to help in the inculcation of the principles of self-reliance and self-support through self-direction and self-help.

Terms.

Tuition, board, washing, heat, light, furnished rooms, etc., except towels, rugs, and such like will be provided for $11.00 per school month of 28 days, payable in advance. Tuition for day pupils $1.50 per month. Young ladies may do their own laundering. Matriculation fee, $1.00. Text-books will be furnished at cost. A careful observance of the regulations of the institution will be expected of every student. For other particulars call (Telephone) Main 2029, or, Address,

AN INFORMAL SMOKER.

A few of the intimate friends of Mr. Fred J. Ewing tendered him an informal smoker last Saturday evening. The occasion being in honor of Mr. Ewing's departure for Tuskegee, Ala., where he goes to accept a position at the famous Tuskegee Normal and Industrial Institute.

Good cheer reigned supreme and several addresses were made in which the virtues of Mr. Ewing as a printer, a friend and a gentleman were extolled. To which the honoree replied in a characteristic speech. Those joining in the testimonial were Geo. O. Boyd, Jr., Dan Hackley Winston, J. O. Battle, Louis K. Thomas, Sr., Eugene Price, J. Frank Battle, George I. Dodson.

Mr. Ewing has been connected with the National Baptist Publishing House for several years as an employee of the composing room. He left the city Monday morning, going directly to Tuskegee, where his especial work will be to teach the operation and mechanism of the linotype.

BIRTHDAY PARTY.

A small party of friends was delightfully entertained last Saturday afternoon at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Jenkins, on Eleventh avenue, North, the occasion being the celebration of the birthday of their daughter, little Miss Nimble Jenkins. The hostess was assisted in receiving by Madams Martin, Slater and John Crowder. The house was beautifully decorated with flowers and plants. At four o'clock the guests were invited into the dining-room, where candy, fruit and ices were served. The guests were Misses Ethel Leath, Jessie McCarter, Albert Johns, Nazaree Crowder, Lucile Jordan, Ida May Malone, Nannie May Brooks, Master Willie Tucker and Wm. Johnson.

CANTATA AT MOUNT OLIVE.

The pupils of Mount Olive Sunday School are preparing to give to the public on the night of December 26 a cantata entitled "Santa Claus, Jr." The cantata is full of good music and speaking and includes a drill by a company of jolly boys, as well as a doll drill by wee tots from the primary department.

HARD TIMES NO HINDRANCE.

Two boys were recently heard discussing hard times. One of them said he did not know times were hard as he had not felt it. "I have a Teddy Bear, and what more should a boy want for Christmas?" This boy's father was wise. He subscribed for the Nashville Globe and the Teddy Bear was thrown in for good measure. Come to The Globe office, 447 Fourth Avenue, North, and get one for the little folks.

Do not decorate your Christmas trees or your parlors before seeing the diamond-shaped paper garlands and the festoon draperies at the National Baptist Publishing Board.

Rev. J. S. Gilmore, of Columbia, was in the city last week en route to Burlington, Ky.
